N° 03 — THE HELP-CENTRE ANSWERER

NOTHING INVENTED.

Answers from our own help centre

It answers customers from our own help centre, cites its sources, and says "I don't know" when the help centre doesn't.

wrong answers out of 30, in each run

"Taught by its third example."

Zero-shot's misses were about form, not retrieval: a reply in French to an English question, an "I don't know" flagged answerable. Few-shot's examples teach both.
